

Alphabetical List of Freemen of the City of Cork

Transcribed from existing collection (Ref. U.11) 'Index/Digest to Council Books of the Corporation of Cork With alphabetical list of Freemen'. Original and typescript by John O'Shea. Date of freemen admission from the 31st October 1710, to the 25th October 1841, the last assembly of the old Corporation as constituted previous to the coming into operation of the Municipal Corporations (Ireland) Act 1840, which introduced local democratic elections. The power of admitting Freemen only by birth or right also ceased in 1841.

Hodder	George	Silversmith. (1746). “whose Grandfather was the First Protestant Mayor of this City and gave a Silver Tankard and a Mace as a present to the Staple Society”. Supplement It is to be presumed that by the words “ First Protestant Mayor ” is meant, after the Expulsion of James 2nd . The First Mayor after that period appearing on the Books is William Ballard, 1691, no doubt a Protestant. And no person of the name Hodder having filled the Civic Chair until 1754, when George Hodder was elected Mayor. Mr. Hodder’s Grandfather referred to must (if at all) have been Mayor between the expulsion of James 2 nd . In 1688 and 1691,	1/10/1746

		but it is to be lamented that there is no record of Proceedings of the Council from the 21st of August 1643 to the 1st October 1690. There is no question that such Records were in existence, as appears by Smith's History of Cork, where they are frequently referred to, but the early Records appear to have been much mutilated. Ex: Gr: there appears no entry from 3rd March 1711 to 8th April April 1712 (Vol. 2. fo. 11). And further on (fo. 19) appears an entry 2nd February 1712. Showing that the leaves must have been taken out, and, to a certain extent, the destruction of the Records. And this occurs frequently in the early Books.

Hope	-	Captain. (now Admiral (1846). H.M.S. "Endymion" "who so gallantly fought the American Ship "President" (1815). Silver Box. Supplement The expression "so gallantly fought" was never so deservedly applied than in this instance, in which Capt. Hope in the "Endymion" 50 guns, 346 men, 1277 tons,

		being in Company with three other vessels, and a faster sailer than the rest, pursued the "President" 472 men, 58 guns, 1533 tons with a greater weight of metal by nearly one third. And, on the 15th of January 1815, engaged her single handed for nearly three hours, when the Endymion was so completely cut up in her rigging that she was in the mean time endeavouring to escape, the "Pomone" came up and after a broadside or two, the "President" surrendered. The "Endymion" having in about an hour bent new sails and got her rigging to rights, came up. In this Action, the American Accounts make the "President" to have surrendered to a Squadron, and it is but justice to say that it is more than probable that had the "Endymion" been alone, the "President" would not have been captured, but this does not lessen the gallantry of the Action, in which the "Endymion" taking the number of men, guns and weight of metal into consideration engaged single handed a vessel fully one fourth her superior for nearly
